

Two-way vs. Reunify Central Park
Survey by *Richland Source

- 1. Based on the information you hear today, what is your opinion about the conversion of one-way streets to two-way streets in downtown Mansfield?

I Support Bad Idea Indifferent

Further Explanation:

- 2. Based on the information you hear today about the conversion of one-way streets to two-way streets in downtown Mansfield, what are the benefits you foresee to the community and your business? (Check all that apply.)

More pedestrian friendly

Fewer trucks in downtown

Slower traffic, more likely to stop at my business

Creates more inviting environment to downtown business growth

Further Explanation:

- 3. Based on the information you hear today about the conversion of one-way streets to two-way streets in downtown Mansfield, what are the drawbacks you foresee to the community and your business? (Check all that apply.)

Added traffic congestion

- Reduction/elimination of on-street parking
- People might avoid traveling through downtown
- Potential safety concerns

Further Explanation:

4. What do you know about how the project would be funded?

- Nothing
- Very little
- Enough
- A lot
- Mostly hearsay, no hard facts

5. If either or both (projects) were to move forward, how should they be funded?

6. Which initiative, the two-way conversion or the reunification of Central Park, do you see as more likely to stimulate economic and cultural growth in downtown Mansfield?

- Two-way conversion
- Reunify Central Park
- Both
- Neither

7. Do you think both initiatives could be achieved in conjunction with one another? If yes, how so? If no, why not?

- Yes
- No

Further Explanation:

8.If you were to choose an initiative for downtown Mansfield, which would you choose?

Two-way conversion

Reunify Central Park

Both

Neither