Proof of Description

- If an officer receives a request to have a description confirmed, they may, if practical, have the dispatcher read back the description given by the emergency caller.

Disputes and Grievances

Any dispute(s) and/or grievance(s) against an officer(s), the Mansfield Police Department, and/or the City of Mansfield will be presented/filed with the Police Review Board through the Mansfield Police Department's complaint process in accordance with Article 175.01 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of Mansfield. It is agreed and understood that filing a disputed matter or grievance with the Police Review Board through the Mansfield Police Department's complaint process shall not be required and/or be a prerequisite to filing litigation against any police officer, the Mansfield Police Department and/or the City of Mansfield.

The community partners forming this agreement shall convene at a mutually agreed upon time and location. Such a meeting will be conducted with respectful protocols, developed and governed by the partners to this agreement.

It is agreed and understood that this Standard For Code of Conduct is aspirational only and not agreed to be a legal standard of liability against any police officer, the Mansfield Police Department and/or the City of Mansfield. With regard to the community member(s), it is further agreed and understood that it, likewise, is not a legal standard of liability against any community member(s).
