Crawford Partnership releases development report
New publication highlights 19 projects and local leader perspectives

BUCYRUS, OHIO – Wednesday, March 29, 2023 – The Crawford Partnership announced today that is releasing the first Crawford County Development Report, portraying the development progress for 2022. The 12-page report, shared previously at the State of the Vision annual meeting, can now be viewed by the general public at cpreports.org.

The new annual publication highlights the county’s recent economic rise, as well as a profile of 19 of the industrial, commercial, and community development projects that were either announced or completed in 2022. The report also provides the perspectives of local leaders on the previous year and lists some of the major activities and accomplishments of the Partnership.

David Zak, President & CEO of the Crawford Partnership, is pleased with the announcement: “We want those inside and outside of Crawford County to discover how much is being invested here and the momentum we are experiencing. We also want to showcase those truly responsible for our progress: private-sector businesses, nonprofits, and local and state government. The Partnership exists to promote, support, and assist their efforts.”

Projects and companies depicted include JBS Development, IB-TECH, Diamond Wipes International, Urban Industries, Advanced Fiber Technology, Shelter Works, Elliott Machine Works, Avita Health System, Shoe Sensation, Millennial Services, Spot’s Rolling Bean Coffee Co., Buehler’s Fresh Foods, Firelands Federal Credit Union, Flour & Whisk Bakery, New Washington Veterans Memorial, Bucyrus-Nevada Waterline, Galion Community Center YMCA, Kelly Park Playscape, and County Fairgrounds Building.
