UPDATE – November 27* - Hit Skip Fatal Crash

Hit-skip vehicle and driver located in Mansfield

The Mansfield Post of the Ohio State Highway Patrol received multiple tips from the public following the fatal hit-skip crash that occurred yesterday morning in Shelby. These tips from the public were instrumental in assisting the investigation and ultimately led troopers to locate the Ford Edge and the driver who fled after striking Barbara Warner, 61, Shelby, who was walking on Mickey Road.

The hit-skip driver, identified as Kaleb Fisher, 24, Shelby, was arrested yesterday afternoon in Mansfield and incarcerated at the Richland County Jail. He was charged with aggravated vehicular homicide and tampering with evidence, both felonies.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol was assisted throughout the investigation by the Shelby Police Department and the Richland County Prosecutor’s Office.
