TAKE BACK THE NIGHT EVENT

Mansfield OH, April 29th 2025 from 6:00 to 8:00 PM – Join Richland County Prosecutor Jodie Schumacher for Take Back the Night, an event designed to raise awareness about sexual violence in all forms and support survivors in their healing journey. The event will take place at OSU Mansfield's Riedl Hall, 2400 Kenwood Circle, Mansfield OH 44906 and will start at 6:00 PM EST.

Take Back the Night is the oldest worldwide movement to end sexual assault, rape, abuse, harassment and trafficking. This event raises awareness, empowers individuals, and inspires action that will educate the public about sexual violence and its impact on victims and their loved ones. This event is open to community members.

The event will include guest speakers, including two survivors who plan to share their personal experiences, a walk of honor, a candlelight vigil, and a resource fair full of community resources. There is no cost to attend this event.

Please share this event widely and participate. Media representatives should contact Kayla Cash, Director of Victim Services, at kcash@richlandcountyoh.gov to schedule interviews and learn about any limitations for filming and/or photographing this event.
